STERKFONTAIN CAVES OR MAROPENG/

1 PAX R2600 P/P | 2 – 3 PAX R2000 P/P

(EXCLUDING ENTRANCE FEES)

COMBINED 1 PERSON R3000

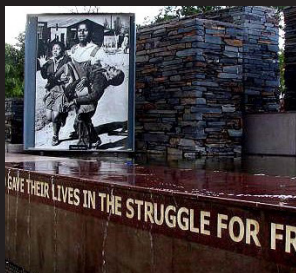

Maropeng and the Cradle of Humankind is a World Heritage Site. Maropeng means “returning to the place of origin” in Setswana, the main indigenous language in this area of South Africa.

Our ancestors have lived in this area for more than 3-million years., and you'll be visiting the birthplace of humanity. This is a 2, 2 billion-year-old cave, where a great scientific discovery was made in the search for origins of humankind.

It is an Anthropological treasure trove of the world where the famous Mrs. Ples (the oldest and most perfect skull in the world, which is 2, 5 million years old) was discovered.

The sites visited are some of the richest in Africa and in the human evolution. Seeing the enormous underground lake is something that will stay with you forever.

(EXCLUDING ENTRANCE FEES)

This is a journey of understanding the lives and times of the City of Gold past and present. Witness the story of Africa's largest, most vibrant and mythical township.

Soweto was a taboo area in the days of apartheid, but is now a vibrant, colourful community and home to millions that symbolizes South Africa's rebirth.

View the early homes of Nelson Mandela and Archbishop Desmond Tutu, and monuments of the freedom struggle such as the Hector Pieterse Memorial, Regina Mundi Church and Freedom Square.

LION SAFARI PARK/

1 PAX R2200 P/P | 2 - 3 PAX R1800 P/P

(EXCLUDING ENTRANCE FEES)

The Lion Park was first established in November 1966 by the world-famous Chipper Fields Circus. It is conveniently situated in the middle of the Gauteng-Tshwane complex. The climate is typical of the South African Highveld and ideal for indigenous fauna and flora. Hence, most of the indigenous animals that are seen at the Lion Park are quite at home.

The Lion Park is neither a game reserve nor a zoo. It has been split into two areas – one area for the herbivores such as zebra, giraffe, various plains antelope and other grass-eating animals, and the other area for the carnivores. They roam freely can be viewed at close proximity. The other area is for the carnivores., such as lions

LESEDI CULTURAL VILLAGE/

1 PAX R2200 P/P | 2 - 3 PAX R1600 P/P
(EXCLUDING ENTRANCE FEES)

The Lesedi Cultural Village is a living monument to South Africa's rich ethnic heritage. In a bush setting, the colourful traditions of Africa's aboriginal people's, (Basotho's, Ndebele, Pedi, Xhosa and Zulus) are preserved and practiced. Enjoy exhibitions of tribal dancing and explore the African cuisine with a feast of traditional dishes at the Nyama Choma Restaurant.

If you want to get an idea of traditional South African culture, then the Lesedi Cultural Village is a perfect outing. It's less than an hour's drive north of Johannesburg and set amongst rocky hills and bushveld. The Village was initiated in 1995 as a tourist attraction and today features five traditional dwellings, each representing a South African culture:

There are families who live here permanently, and tours through their homes offer interesting cross-cultural comparisons of the customs and social organization of the different cultures.

PILANESBERG NATIONAL PARK/

1 PAX R4000 P/P | 2 - 3 PAX R2200 P/P

(EXCLUDING ENTRANCE & GAME DRIVE FEES)

In a malaria free area nearby enough to Johannesburg for a day visit, the Pilanesberg offers the opportunity to see the BIG 5. You will drive through this pre-historic volcanic crater to game spot in the cooler part of the day, and enjoy lunch at a 4-star lodge overlooking the game reserve.

Pilanesberg Game Reserve is in the Bojanala Region of the North West Province, adjacent to Sun City. Set in the crater of a long extinct volcano,. The park ranks among the largest of the parks in South Africa (it is in fact the fourth largest park) and covers an area of 55 000 hectares. The beauty of Pilanesberg is reflected in a large central lake, the Mankwe Dam. Over time, wind and water have carved a spectacular landscape with rocky outcrops, open grasslands, wooded valleys and thickets. Pilanesberg National Park accommodates virtually every mammal of southern Africa.

APARTHEID MUSEUM/

1 PAX R2000 P/P | 2 - 3 PAX R1200 P/P

(EXCLUDING ENTRANCE FEES)

The Museum illustrates the rise and fall of Apartheid., the racially prejudiced system that blighted South Africa and gave rise to decades of struggle. View firsthand the political system that divided the people before democracy in 1994.

The Apartheid Museum is the story of the triumph of the human spirit over adversity. Beginning in 1948, the white elected National Party government initiated a process which turned over 20 million people into second class citizens, condemning them to a life of servitude, humiliation and abuse. The liberation in 1994 with the election of Nelson Mandela, the prisoner who became president, is a climax in the saga of a nation's resistance, courage and fortitude.

PRETORIA TOUR/

1 PAX R2200 P/P | 2 - 3 PAX R1800 P/P

(EXCLUDING ENTRANCE FEES)

Enjoy a visit to the Voortrekker Monument, a monument of great significance too many Afrikaans-speaking South Africans. The interior walls depict the story of the Great Trek, a mass movement of Afrikaner Boers who resented British rule and migrated north. Next, you can visit the Paul Kruger House Museum where you can learn more about this fascinating man and his life. The house displays furniture and personal items of the Kruger family.
